When your third grader just isn't up to par with reading comprehension (you know that he or she is struggling because of a lack of interest in books, poor test scores, and teacher input) what are you supposed to do about it? How can you help him or her become a successful reader? The good news is that you're on the right track! The following reading comprehension books for third graders can help you help your child with the skills and strategies necessary for comprehending what they've read. Sylvan Author: Sylvan Learning, Inc. Publisher: Random House, Inc. Summary: This full color, one-page-a-day workbook combines spelling, vocabulary and reading comprehension strategies for kids who need a full Language Arts boost. Buy the complete package for a Language Arts work-out for students really struggling. Reading Skills Practice: Making predictions, understanding vocabulary in context using context clues, finding the main idea, sequencing, identifying problems. It also includes spelling skills like verb tense and compound words along with vocabulary building skills with suffixes, root words and homophones. Price: At press time, the workbook ranged from $10.59 - $15.74 on Amazon. Why Buy? If your child needs Language Arts remediation and gets bored easily with black and white print-outs, this workbook is just the ticket. Not only will the full color pages will help keep kids engaged, the skills included should help kids secure those basics they may be missing. Houghton Mifflin Harcourt Author: Steck-Vaughn Publisher: Houghton Mifflin Harcourt Summary: This book includes info pages at the beginning of each unit and each lesson provide explicit instructions for teaching the skills. The reading passages are followed by comprehension questions in multiple-choice and short answer format, so kids can feel prepared for standardized tests. The book also includes graphic organizers and correlation charts. Reading Skills Practice: Finding the main idea, using context clues, sequencing, determining cause and effect, making inferences, finding details, and understanding the difference between fact and opinion. Price: At press time, the workbook ranged from $9.97 - $15.74 on Amazon. Why Buy? Kids are often inundated with fiction, but nonfiction is just as important to read and comprehend, too. I'd wager that most of an adult's day is spent reading nonfiction! This workbook helps kids grasp nonfiction with high-interest topics. Evan-Moor Author: Camille Liscinsky Publisher: Evan-Moore Summary: There are over 150 reproducible reading passages and tons of skill-building follow-up questions. It's perfect for test prep and daily review as it uses both fiction and nonfiction reading passages with follow-up questions that target key comprehension skills. Reading Skills Practice: Finding the main idea, drawing conclusions, sequencing, identifying cause and effect, developing vocabulary, analyzing characters, comparing and contrasting, making inferences, following directions, making predictions, sorting and classifying, and reading for details, making connections and organizing. Price: At press time, the workbook ranged from $17.27 - $19.71 on Amazon. Why Buy? The pages are ready to go for class or home use. You literally just have to open the book and begin. Plus, the lessons are easy to follow and thorough enough that you won't need anything else. Kumon Author: Kumon Staff Publisher: Kumon Publishing North America, Incorporated Summary: This is another workbook that teachers pre-3rd grade skills. It's an ideal summer solution for struggling readers who are transitioning from second grade to third grade. Reading Skills Practice: Vocabulary Building, Prefixes & Suffixes, Compare & Contrast, Defining Words by Context, Who/When/Where/What/Why/How, Chart the Passage, Sequencing, and Making & Revising Predictions Price: At press time, the workbook ranged from $3.95 - $7.95 on Amazon. Why Buy? If cash is an issue for you, then this resource is right on the money. You won't find another workbook with such a low price for such a high quality of content. Want to help your third-grader master the basics of reading and writing? Here are some of the skills your child will be learning in the classroom. Reading & writing Determining meaning of unknown words Use a variety of strategies for determining the meaning of unknown words. Example: Use what a sentence says to figure out the meaning of an unknown word or phrase in that sentence (use context clues to determine the meaning of a word). Use an understanding of prefixes and suffixes to figure out what words mean (e.g. heat/preheat, care/careless). Use resource materials (like glossaries and dictionaries) to determine the meaning of words and phrases. Figurative language and relationships Understand figurative language and word relationships. Example: Know the difference between literal and non-literal meanings of words and phrases (e.g. "take steps", "something's fishy") Explain the differences in shades of meaning among related words (knew, believed, suspected) Use what is known about root words to understand new words with the same root (company, companion) Read third grade text fluently Read third grade text fluently and with expression, without pausing to figure out words and phrases. Example: Who is telling this part of the story? What can we learn about the main character from his actions? How is this illustration similar to the illustrations in other books in this series? Why did the main character react that way? What, in the text, makes you think so? What is the main idea of this article? How do you know? What does this diagram show us? Why is a photo included in this part of the article? Paying attention to details Pay close attention to the details in a text, getting information from the words, illustrations, and graphics. Retelling stories Retell stories, fables, folktales, and myths from many cultures, use details from the text to explain their central message. Comparing and contrasting texts Compare and contrast two texts about the same topic or written by the same author. Making connections Describe the connections between specific sentences and paragraphs and the overall text (e.g. comparison, cause/effect, first/second/third in series). Engaging with a variety of texts Actively engage with a variety of rich and challenging texts to build a foundation of knowledge in literature, science, social studies, and other subjects. Example: "Charlotte's Web" by E. B. White "Tops & Bottoms" by Janet Stevens "A Medieval Feast" by Aliki "The Story of Ruby Bridges" by Robert Coles "Moonshot: The Flight of Apollo 11" by Brian Floca Basic rules of English Use basic rules of English grammar, capitalization, punctuation, and spelling when writing. Example: Explain the function of nouns (people, places, things, or ideas), verbs (words that describe an action or state of being) and adjectives (descriptive words) in sentences. Use commas and quotation marks in dialogue. Spell common words correctly, use spelling rules and patterns when writing words. Use dictionaries to check and correct spelling. Writing structured stories Write a story with a clear beginning, middle, and end, using dialogue and description. Tip: Write and stage a play. Drama and performance can hook both lovers and non-lovers of reading and writing into enjoying language. Here's one idea to try with your third-grader: Write and stage a play! Gather a group of your child's friends and have them choose a favorite book. Help them pick a scene they love from the book and write a simple script—just by writing down what the characters said (or might have said). Help them pick a character to act out, find some props and dress-up clothes for costumes, and you're set to go! Tip: Encourage writing about holidays. Writing can be an important addition to your holiday observances. Invite your child to write and illustrate stories about her favorite holiday traditions. Encourage her to add lots of details by using all her senses in descriptions: How the potato pancakes smell at Hanukkah, how the candles glisten at Kwanzaa, what the Christmas carols sound like, how the wrapping paper feels as she rips open her presents. Make the story into a book—either on the computer or handwritten and stapled together—and save as a new family tradition to read and reread each year. Informational pieces Write an informational piece that introduces a topic, groups related information clearly, uses facts and details, and ends with a concluding statement or section. Opinion pieces Write an opinion piece that introduces a topic or text, states an opinion, clearly organizes and explains the reasons for the opinion. Using technology Produce and share writing using technology (including keyboarding skills) with guidance and support from adults. Listening & speaking Presenting information orally Speak in complete sentences with appropriate detail, at an understandable pace, when presenting information orally. Participating in conversations Participate in conversations about topics and texts being studied, listening carefully to the ideas of others, and asking and answering questions in order to gather more information or deepen understanding of the topic. Main ideas & supporting details Determine the main ideas and supporting details from media presentations or books read aloud. Research & inquiry Short research projects Independently conduct short research projects to gather information from print and digital sources and build knowledge about a topic. Take notes and sort information Take brief notes and sort information into categories.
